

The map illustrates the proposed BART 3 Model Run route. The route is shown as a thick black line, starting in San Francisco and extending through the Bay Bridge to Oakland. Key locations marked along the route include Union Square, 3rd St Mission, Ballpark, Mission Rock, Alameda, and Eastlake. The map also shows the existing BART system, with stations marked by red squares and labeled with letters A through K. The map includes major highways, streets, and geographical features like the San Francisco Bay and the Alameda-Oakland-Fry.
